

UVic Environmental Studies Research Colloquium

in David Turpin Building, Room B255 from 11:30am-12:50pm

Here is a brief overview of the speakers that will be presenting to us this term so that you can plan which seminars would be of most interest to you:

| Date           | Speaker(s)            | Topic or Title   | Affiliation                   |
|-----------------------|------------------------------|---|--------------------------------------|
| Jan 25th, 2023        | Sarah Jacobs                 | Mountain Legacy Project (decolonization efforts)  | University of Victoria, ES           |
| Feb 1st, 2023         | Michelle Daigle              | Indigenous Geographies and Ecologies  | University of Toronto, Indig St/Geog |
| Feb 8th, 2023         | Sarah Sharma                 | Political Economy and the Environment   | UVIC, Political Science              |
| Feb 15th, 2023        | Pamela Spalding              | "Unsettling landscapes: Applications of Ethnobotanical Research in Defining Aboriginal Rights and Re-affirming Indigenous Laws in T'Sou-ke territory, Vancouver Island and Beyond." | University of Victoria, ES           |
| Feb 22nd, 2023 | No Seminar            | Reading Week   |                                      |
| Mar 1st, 2023         | Brenda Beckwith              | "The Garry Oak Ecosystem: past, present, future".   | Selkirk College/Adjunct UVic         |
| Mar 8th, 2023         | TBA                          |   |                                      |
| Mar 15th, 2023        | Nancy Shackleford and others | Restoration in collaboration with local Indigenous groups   | University of Victoria, ES           |
| Mar 22nd, 2023        | Isabelle Maurice Hammond     | Root Gardens  | University of Victoria, ES           |
| Mar 29th, 2023        | Andrew MacDougall            | Local Restoration   | University of Guelph                 |
| Apr 5th, 2023         | ES 501/601 ES Grad Students  | ES Graduate Student proposal presentations  | University of Victoria, ES           |